CERTIFICATE

About the certificate

The focus of this course is to provide foundation art and design skills for students. In this course you will learn basic creative and technical skills that underpin visual art and design related industries. It is recommended if you wish to work in careers such as visual art, graphic design, game design, concept art and illustration, product design, interior design, fashion design, photography, and art and design teaching.

This course will provide you with a nationally recognised vocational qualification.

The areas you will cover will include painting, drawing, ceramics, printmaking, and design development processes. You will have the opportunity to make individual creative projects, compile a portfolio of artwork and participate in art exhibitions.
