

Course Information

English as an Additional Language Foundation EALD | ELD

About the course

The Foundation EAL/D courses are designed for students who speak another language or dialect as their first or 'home' language and who have not demonstrated the literacy standard in the OLNA. EAL/D focuses on the mechanics of Standard Australian English (SAE) and its use in the community, the workplace or in further education or training. Practical, relevant tasks delivered through a range of engaging contexts teach students to become effective communicators, code switching between languages or dialects successfully.

Unit 1 Moving between cultures

The EAL/D Foundation course is designed for students who speak another language or dialect as their first or 'home' language and who have not demonstrated the literacy standard in the OLNA. These units prepare students for employment or training. The focus of this unit is developing communication skills, particularly speaking and listening, in a range of familiar contexts.

You will use your existing language or dialect to develop your Standard Australian English and improve your ability to communicate effectively in everyday life situations in home, personal and social contexts. This unit is about moving between your culture and Australian culture. You will have the opportunity to apply your knowledge and understanding to expressing your needs, opinions and ideas effectively in everyday life situations in home, personal and social contexts.
