

Course Information

English and Psychology

Foundation English | ENG

About the course

The Foundation English course is designed to develop student skills and understandings of reading, writing, and speaking and listening. These areas of focus are explored in contexts of work, community participation, learning and situations of everyday life. The course is designed to help students to be more confident and capable when they are required to comprehend and produce texts, and to communicate effectively. This course is for students who haven't passed OLN and includes specific focus on spelling, punctuation, and grammar.

F1ENG

Unit 1 Foundation English

This unit aims to develop your skills with functional literacy, especially spelling, punctuation and grammar. You will read and produce texts for work, learning, community and everyday personal contexts.

When listening and speaking, you will learn how to listen attentively and purposefully and how to shape or structure an oral text for particular purposes and audiences.

 Prerequisites Category 1 or 2 in OLN reading or writing or equivalent standard	 Type of Assessment 35% Reading 35% Writing 30% Oral Communication
 Year of Study Year 11	 Costs $25