

Course Information

English as an Additional Language

General EALD | ELD

About the course

The General EAL/D courses are designed for students who speak another language or dialect as their first or 'home' language. EAL/D focuses on development of the competent use of Standard Australian English (SAE) in a range of contexts. The EAL/D General course prepares students for a range of post-secondary destinations in further education, training and the workplace.

Unit 1 Cross-cultural perspectives

This unit is paired with General unit two EAL/D. It requires you to respond to and create extended texts in familiar and unfamiliar situations. This pair of units prepares students for employment or training.

This unit focuses on responding to and creating extended texts in familiar contexts in Standard Australian English. Using knowledge and skills from your existing languages and cultures, you will continue to learn English in order to present yourself, build relationships with peers and others in the community, explore experiences with others, reflect on your role as a cross-cultural learner and investigate differences between your first cultures, languages and dialects and other Australian cultures.
