About the course

The English General course focuses on consolidating and refining the skills and knowledge needed by students to become competent, confident and engaged users of English in everyday, community, social, further education, training and workplace contexts. The course is designed to provide students with the skills to succeed in a wide range of post-secondary pathways by developing their language, literacy and literary skills. Students comprehend, analyse, interpret, evaluate and create analytical, imaginative, interpretive and persuasive texts in a range of written, oral, multimodal and digital forms.

G1ENG

Unit 1 General English

In this unit you will learn to employ a variety of strategies to assist comprehension while reading, viewing and listening to texts to connect, interpret and visualise ideas. You will learn how to respond personally and logically to them by questioning, using inferential reasoning and determining the importance of content and structure.

Interaction with others in a range of contexts, including every day, community, social, further education, training and workplace contexts; and communicating ideas and information clearly and correctly in a range of contexts are components of this unit. Your understanding of language will be applied through the creation of texts for different purposes. A speaking/listening assessment is included at least once.
